GOVERNOR'S BUDGET INCLUDES NEARLY $11.5 MILLION FOR CSCSB

It is another tight budget...reflective of the country's present economic circumstances, but is generally supportive of the ongoing requirements of the CSUC."

Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke, according to a recent statement, believes that "Governor Brown's budget is responsive to basic needs of the CSUC in 1976-77."

Governor Brown has proposed a $12.6 billion state budget for 1976-77, which includes $576 million for the CSUC. For its portion of the systemwide total, Cal State, San Bernardino is allocated a budget of nearly $11.5 million. Included in the CSCSB budget is $420,000 to equip the Creative Arts Building now under construction. Not included was a request of $720,000 for site development for the College.

The Governor's budget also reflects a salary allocation which is the equivalent to an overall 5.2 per cent increase for faculty and staff members. Also proposed is a 50 per cent EOP funding increase for the CSUC to assist the admission of low-income students, and $4 million for minor construction and $500,000 to remove architectural barriers to the physically handicapped.

ROBERT STEIN TO HEAD
MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Robert Stein, Assoc. Prof., Mathematics, has been appointed to the position of Chairman of the Mathematics Dept., President John M. Pfau announced today.

Dr. Stein, who joined the College in 1967, will head the eight-man department for a three-year term, beginning September, 1976.

The mathematician's major interest is in mathematics instruction at all levels and he has written a text, Mathematics: An Exploratory Approach, which is concerned with mathematics for elementary school teachers. Another research area lies in geometric algebra.

Dr. Stein received his Ph.D. last summer from the University of Texas, Austin in mathematics education. He obtained his B.A. from Harvard and a M.A. in teaching from Wesleyan U. He holds an M.A. in math from Dartmouth.

A forthcoming article by Dr. Stein explaining the "Gaussian Integers," will appear in the Two-Year College Mathematics Journal some time this year, which will be of interest to undergraduate math majors.

"TOBACCO ROAD" CAST A cast of 11 is in rehearsal for "Tobacco Road," billed for
NOW IN REHEARSAL Feb. 26 opening. The 1933 play, which broke long-run records on Broadway, promises to be earthy, according to Director William Slout, who describes the characters as "animalistic." "Although we view them with pity, we laugh heartily at their eccentricities. It is funny and bawdy but subtextually it is a serious observation of the poor squatters in Georgia during the Depression," he says.

The hit Jack Kirkland play has a CSCSB cast of Paul DeMeo, John Finn, Sondra Theodore, Pam Guzzardo, Keith O'Camb, Mike McDonald, Denise Nannestad, Syndi Pratter, Collin Cameron, J.C. Wright and Charles Johnson. Karen White is stage manager.
